Observations

Each partial exam will consist of open-ended questions that will evaluate all the theoretical contents seen in the course. The group assignments will consist of the development of a strategic analysis of the distribution strategies used by companies in a specific industry, working in multidisciplinary teams. There will be two public presentations of the project that will be evaluated as well.

Some practical assignments will also be carried out in the classroom, through various deliverable activities that the teachers will present to the students and which will be carried out in different sessions throughout the semester.

The minimum qualification required in the partial exams is 4.00 points (out of 10.00).

The minimum qualification required in the group assignments is 4.00 points (out of 10.00).

If the student do not reach these minimum requirements, he/she will not pass the course and he/she would have to take an additional test in due time.

Adaptation to the uncertainty scenario COVID19: if the social distancing measures established by the health authorities do not allow an evaluation activity to be carried out in the classroom, the activity will be carried out through Moodle, respecting at all times the content and evaluation method stipulated in this syllabus.

Observations for part-time students

The individual exam will consist of a multiple choice test that will evaluate all the theoretical contents seen in the course (both in the ordinary and extraordinary call for the exam).
