3.1 LEARNING OUTCOMES
- To think over the relevance of the images in nowadays societies.
- To think about the ways of seeing the world through images , designing educative strategies for improving the capacities of children in the act of seeing and understanding images.
- To think about the formative uses of films and images in the study of Human Societies , considering their peculiarities and their problems.
- To design useful educative strategies and activities , based upon films and images, for enlightening the children in their construction of a social consciousness.

4. OBJECTIVES

The Education in the Ways of Seeing will be foreseen as a basis for a critical way of teaching and learning . Furthermore, the students must overcome their role as passive spectators for becoming real and active image thinkers.

The students in Education must be aware about the invaluable possibilities that Cinema and the Audiovisual Media provide , as an attractive and updated teaching tool under the cultural environment of our globalized world.

To design didactic proposals and programs, including Cinema and images, as a productive way for enriching and improving the knowledge about social problems and their different and varied ways of representation .

To develop skills for reading, thinking and communicating through images.

To think about how the Education in the Ways of Seeing provides knowledge and new didactic tools , managing a new and very attractive language.

Observations

For a more comprehensive information about the evaluation procedures, the students should read the program of the subject, to be delivered at the beginning of the course.

The Board of the Faculty of Education has approved the following agreements related to orthography, plagiarism and citation rules:

ORTHOGRAPHY

We understand that all the university students have developed language skills in relation to oral and written expression . It is therefore an essential duty to respect and maintain the adequate use of the orthographic rules, including accents and punctuation, as well as the grammatical and lexical adequacy, in all the works and tests as an essential condition to pass the subject.

PLAGIARISM

In case of fraudulent conduct (plagiarism) of the evaluation tests, the qualification will be adjusted with the provisions of Article 54.1 of the Rules of Evaluation Processes at the University of Cantabria: 'The fraudulent procedures in any test or in any evaluation activities will deserve an automatic qualification of '0' in the subject'.

CITATION RULES

APA citation rules as a criterion for all academic work are assumed . Although these rules have different editions , as an initial reference we suggest to use the following citation link of the BUC:
