Observations
Students who have not passed the course in the ordinary call are entitled to do a written exam in the extraordinary call. It will covers all the contents of the course and will account the 100% of the total evaluation. The final exam for the extraordinary call will consist of theoretical questions/exercises of the seven topics covered in this course. The student must accept the following ethical commitment: As a student at the Universidad de Cantabria (UC), and based on the Declaración de Integridad Académica signed on their first enrollment at UC, they agree not to use any illegal means and abide by the sanctions that, where appropriate, within the framework of the current regulations, the UC could impose, without prejudice to the resources or other actions that, in defense of its interests and rights, it may interpose. It should be remembered that according to ARTICLE 32 of the Reglamento de los Procesos de Evaluación de la UC: "The fraudulent performance of the tests or evaluation activities will directly imply the minimum grade '0' in the corresponding call of the course, invalidating with it, any qualification obtained in all evaluation activities for the extraordinary call. This circumstance shall be brought to the attention of the Dean of the Faculty. In the case of recidivism or when the Faculty requires it due to the seriousness of the facts, the Comisión de Reclamaciones Académicas will be in charge of promoting disciplinary sanctions. To this end, the professor will submit a report to the Dean of the Faculty within a month. The Faculty must give the required hearing procedure to the student".
Observations for part-time students
Those part-time students will perform a single assessment process that will involve the completion of a written exam covering all the contents of the course. It will account the 100 % of the total assessment. If the health situation requires a lockdown, the final exam will be held online using the official platforms enabled by the University of Cantabria (Moodle and Skype for Business, or a tool substitute). It would consist of a questionnaire that combines multiple choice questions with short questions.
