3.1 LEARNING OUTCOMES

- 1. Make a Business plan, analyze its feasibility and make the necessary procedures to start it.
- 2. Diagnose specific aspects of the management of a family business; and apply optimal tools for the management of the family business.

4. OBJECTIVES

MODULE OF CREATION OF COMPANIES

The objective is to systematize the way in which it has to gather the necessary information to assess the weaknesses and the potential of a business idea. Students have to consider the necessary resources to make the necessary investments to carry the business out and quantifying the economic effects that are derived of the activity by forecasting the flow of income and expenses.

The course has an eminently practical orientation. Students are going to learn all the stages to be followed in the " Viability Plan" according to a standard format, in such a way that when the the course ends they will have a report that, in addition to allowing you to assess your idea, may be used to search for funding or public aid.

FAMILY COMPANY MODULE

The module focuses on the study of the particularities and specific problems of the family business, raising the most specific aspects of it (government, succession, direction, etc.), developing an analysis of them and working in a practical way to find possible solutions

The basic objective of the subject is to provide the student the knowledge and skills necessary to successfully face the management and direction of family businesses, more specifically:

- Know and understand the specific problems and the most critical aspects of the management of family businesses, as well as their impact on the main business decisions.
- Know how to apply the tools to deal with this specific problem.
- Understand the fundamentals, causes and possible solutions of conflicts in family relationships.
- Acquire an active, critical and positive attitude towards the family business, its problems and the tools to solve or manage them.
